GUIDELINES: Ads may be scheduled at the advertiser's discretion (i.e. 10 days in a row, every other day, etc...). All ad packages must be run per month and cannot be combined or carried over to another month. ROP packages must run a minimum of three (3) months. Contract must be signed for term commitment. If advertiser starts a package and does not finish, ad charges for the ads they ran will be short-rated back to open rate or their contracted rate level.
